SHAHT Events Diary 2009

If you would like any further details about the Trust's Activities and Events, please either phone 07870 447810; or log onto: www.chobham.info/SHAHT/

Summer 2009- Tuesdays evenings, 7pm - 9.30pm. These continue to be evenings when volunteers work together on various aspects of post excavation processing. Everyone welcome.

First Tuesday of each month : Flint Knapping Group meeting 7.30pm start, but please contact SHAHT for confirmation.

An Intermediate Flint Knapping Course was held at the Trust in March, tutored by Karl Lee. We revised basic principles, learnt to remove flakes from prepared cores (seen in the photo, at Karl's feet) and moved on to pressure flaking of arrowheads.

For information about Karl's work and courses see his website: www.primitive-technology.co.uk

Saturday 18 July to Sunday 2 August 2009 : Festival of British Archaeology

What was National Archaeology Week has been renamed & extended to last a fortnight. We will have a new display in our Temporary Gallery & be some way down the road towards redisplaying our main galleries. 2009 will be the 20th anniversary of SHAHT taking over the Old Police Station, so we plan to celebrate this. SHAHT's event will be held on:

Sunday 26 July Open day including Face Painting and New Exhibition on the Police Station and its Archaeology. A BBQ will be held afterwards for Volunteers.

Sunday 13 September 2009 : Heritage Open Days : Centre will be open to Visitors throughout the day

Thursday 26 November 2009 Annual Fund Raising Christmas Lecture, venue St Mary's Church Hall, Park Road Camberley. 7.00 for 7.30 pm
Archaeology & Pollen Analysis by Michael Keith Lucas. £5.00. Raffle, mulled wine & mince pies.

Other events will be arranged during the year.

Measuring, labelling and cataloguing flint artefacts from excavations in the local area

Library

The Library is currently open on Tuesday evenings and at other times by arrangement.

Young Archaeologists Club

The club is well attended and meets on one Saturday in the month (see YAC website for dates).

Trust Outing to Avebury : Winter Solstice 2008
